This Schedule itemizes the total expenses Thompson Hine incurred as reflected on the Invoices by type of expense.

Schedule D – General description of services rendered

This Schedule generally describes the intellectual property and other services rendered as reflected on the Invoices.

2. These Schedules summarize the following:

a The Invoices reflect that Thompson Hine rendered professional services during the Seventh Application Period in the total sum of $101,155.50.

b. The Invoices reflect that, in rendering such professional services, Thompson Hine attorneys and other professionals expended a total of 380.20 hours, broken down as follows:

| Attorneys  | Hours  | Total |
|-------------------|---------------|--------------|
| Partners          | 29.30         |              |

F. Thompson Hine representations

1. Throughout the course of its employment as Special Counsel to Debtors, and in compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 1103(e), Thompson Hine has not represented any other entity having an adverse interest in connection with the case.

2. The invoiced amounts reflect actual and necessary services and expenses.

3. The hourly rates and the amount charged for expenses as set forth in the Invoices are based on the usual and customary rates that Thompson Hine charges its non-bankruptcy clients for similar services.

4. Thompson Hine has undertaken every effort to divide the tasks performed among the firm's attorneys and other professionals in order to eliminate duplication of efforts. Thompson Hine is cognizant of the fact that compensation will be paid for attorneys and other professionals only for actual services rendered and that the dollar value of a particular task is not enhanced simply because an attorney performs a task. Consequently, considerable care has been taken to avoid the performance of purely ministerial tasks by attorneys and to use other staff where possible.

5. Thompson Hine has made every effort to restrict to a minimum the number of attorneys who were substantially involved in the intellectual property matters so as to maximize familiarity with the subject matter and to avoid wasted time. When more than one professional participated in any matter, such joint participation was necessary because of the complexity of the issues and problems involved or because of the need to familiarize the additional professional with the matter so that he/she could independently perform further necessary services and provide continuity.

G. Legal principles

1. Interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses are specifically authorized by 11 U.S.C. § 330 and § 331 and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016. Specifically, 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1) generally provides:

After notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to §§ 326, 328 and 329, the court may award to a trustee, an examiner, a professional person employed under §§ 327 or 1103 –

(A) Reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, professional person or attorney and by paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) Reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

2. Section 330(a)(3)(A) then sets forth specific compensation standards that courts consider in setting fees. This section provides:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including - -

(A) The time spent on such services;

(B) The rates charged for such services;

(C) Whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered to the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) Whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(E) Whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

H. Application of legal principles

Interim compensation and expenses

1. Thompson Hine seeks entry of an order allowing and approving Debtors' payment to Thompson Hine of 100% of the fees, consisting of the amount of $80,944.40 (80%) and the Holdback Amount of $20,211.10 (20%), or the total sum of $101,155.50 plus expenses of $12,414.35 (100%) or the total sum of $113,569.85 that Thompson Hine invoiced for services rendered and expenses incurred during the Seventh Application Period.

2. Applying the Code requirements hereinabove discussed, Thompson Hine is entitled to relief it seeks. More specifically:

a. The hourly rates for the Thompson Hine attorneys and other professionals are reasonable. The hourly rates consist of Thompson Hine's customary and usual charges for all matters.

b. The time Thompson Hine professionals expended (380.20 hours) is reasonable given the amount of actual, necessary services performed, the difficulty of the issues and the amount involved.

c. The Thompson Hine services allowed excellent, quality and timely results that substantially benefited the estate.

d. The Thompson Hine attorneys and other professionals performing the services have the skills and experience required to effect such results.

I. Conclusion

For the reasons hereinabove set forth, Thompson Hine seeks entry of an order that provides as follows:

1. Allows and approves payment to Thompson Hine of the sum of $113,569.85 for the Seventh Application Period, broken down as follows:

Fees

|                       |                     |                     |
|-----------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Fees (80%)            | $ 80,944.40        |                     |
| Holdback Amount (20%) | $ 20,211.10 |                     |
|                       | $101,155.50        | $101,155.50        |
| Expenses (100%)       |                     | $ 12,414.35 |
| Total                 |                     | $113,569.85        |

2. Approves payment to Thompson Hine of the sum of $798,541.94 for its fees for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses during the Full Retention Period.

Accordingly, Thompson Hine respectfully requests that this Court enter an order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit “E” approving the Seventh Application, and granting such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
